Inspired by Gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Fredric Ozanam, and patron, St. Vincent de Paul.

Members are known as Vincentians and they witness God's love by embracing all works of charity and justice. The Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes, making no distinction in those served, because Vincentians see the face of Christ. All work done by members is done in confidence.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic organization of lay persons, founded in 1833, in Paris by Fredric Ozanam and his companions, under the patronage of St. Vincent de Paul.

The St. Michael Conference is part of the national organization, founded in 1845 in St Louis. The parish society is open to new members who wish to share their love of Christ and their good works. It is also always open to generous donors who wish to provide them with the means to continue their service to those whose needs give all of us an opportunity to be blessed.
